FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

EVANSVILLE MAN SENTENCED TO LIFE IN METHAMPHETAMINE CONSPIRACY CASE

PRESS RELEASE

Susan W. Brooks, United States Attorney for the Southern District of Indiana, announced that JEFFREY LOUIS SCOTT, 51, of Evansville, Indiana, was sentenced to life imprisonment today by U.S. District Judge Richard L. Young following his conviction at trial December 8, 2005 for conspiracy to possess with the intent to distribute and to distribute in excess of 500 grams of methamphetamine. The case was the result of an investigation by the Drug Enforcement Administration, the Evansville Vanderburgh County Joint Drug Task Force, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and several other federal, state and local law enforcement agencies.

Between 2002 and March, 2004, JEFFREY SCOTT participated in a methamphetamine trafficking conspiracy designed to move more than 5 kilograms of methamphetamine from Atlanta, Georgia into the Evansville area. SCOTT was one of the persons who distributed the methamphetamine to Evansville locals, returning part of the proceeds to his supplier.

SCOTT received life imprisonment due to his prior drug related criminal history, which included felony convictions in state courts in both Indiana and Kentucky.

According to Assistant United States Attorney Matthew P. Brookman, who prosecuted the case for the government, other persons charged in connection with this conspiracy and already sentenced include: Jose Correa, 108 months (August, 2005); Alex Campos, 168 months (December, 2005); Kaleb Macer, 57 months (June, 2005); Mark Happe, 46 months (June, 2005); and Daniel Wolfe, 18 months (May 2005).
